PRIVACY POLICY

Kiewit Investment Fund LLLP (the “Fund”) collects certain personal information from its limited partners and protects the confidentiality and security of that information as follows:

- The Fund collects nonpublic personal information about its limited partners, such as their name, date of birth, address and social security number through the Subscription Agreement and from Peter Kiewit Sons’, Inc. We also receive and maintain information about your transactions with the Fund, such as your account balances, and your history of tendering units or making new investments. Personal information about current and former limited partners is not sold or rented. The Fund maintains electronic and procedural safeguards to preserve the privacy of the nonpublic personal information of its limited partners.
- Employees may not discuss the business affairs of any limited partner with any other employee or other party, except on a strict need-to-know basis.
- Limited partner information is not released, except upon a limited partner’s authorization or when permitted or required by law, or to service providers to the Fund as necessary or appropriate to provide these services.
- Third-party service providers with access to limited partner information are required to keep such information confidential and to use it only to provide services for the Fund or to limited partners.
- The Fund also complies with local law where that law imposes additional restrictions on the confidentiality and security of limited partner information.

Questions concerning the confidentiality or security of limited partner information should be directed to the Chief Compliance Officer at:
